- 1) Is the course open or closed? A C in this column tells you the course is closed. A □ lets you know the course is available for registration.
- 2) This column is the Course Reference Number or CRN. This is a 5-digit number that is a unique ID number for that specific course. Use the CRN if you're completing a paper registration form or click on it to view the course description, prerequisites or the textbook requirements for that course.
- 3) Next, you'll see the Course Subject and Title (sample: HIS 103)
- 4) This column contains the one-letter Campus Code. An M = Main Campus, Queensbury, W = Wilton Campus, O = Online Course
- 5) The number of credits earned by taking this course
- 6) The full Course Title
- 7) The Days and Time the course is scheduled to meet (M=Monday, T=Tuesday, W=Wednesday, R=Thursday, F=Friday, S=Saturday)
- 8) How many people have signed up for the course? From left to right: Capacity of course, number of seats taken, number of seats available
- 9) Course Instructor information
- 10) Date Range Most 3-credit courses run the entire semester. Many HRD & PED courses are partial-semester courses.
- 11) Assigned Classroom for your course
- 12) Course Attributes Which requirements can this course fulfill?

If a box appears, the student can check the box and scroll to the bottom of the page to click the 'Submit' button to register for the course. If a 'C' appears, the course is Closed/Full and you will need to select a different section.
